

FORM 1.5A (2)

Protocol – Use / Hire of Church Property for Private Functions/Events

All parishes are insured to cover one off private functions/events and it is the sole responsibility of parents/guardians to organise and supervise all children attending. Each parish priest/administrator should ensure that key health and safety measures are covered prior to agreeing to the use of the property for private functions/events.

Agreement with a potential user:-

- The Church body will ensure that the property is safe to use and outline how accidents resulting from the condition of the property should be reported – see Accidents / Incidents Form 1.4B (1);
- The Church body is not responsible for the organisation, supervision or conduct of the children or adults involved/attending the function/event;
- The safeguarding policy and procedures of the Church body does not apply to the private function, and, as such, all safeguards are the responsibility of the organiser of the function/event and not the Church body.

I agree to the above terms and conditions:-

Signed: _____ (organiser of the function/event)

Print name: _____

Date: _____

Permission to use Church property granted by:-
