1. What signs and wonders does Jesus mention at the beginning of this Gospel?
2. Who is the "Son of Man"? Can you name other titles for Him?
3. What event do these images prophesise?
4. Jesus presents Himself as a Judge in this gospel - what do you think He will be judging?
5. Do you think Jesus means for us to be fearful of that "end-time"? Why else might He be giving a warning?
6. What kind of things are uncertain in the world today?
7. What reassurance does Jesus offer in this Gospel.
Read today's psalm also - how does this relate to the reassurance in the Gospel?

Gospel Reflection: SIGNS OF THE TIMES

This Sunday is the second to last Sunday of our liturgical year. As we approach the end of the Church year, our Gospel invites us to consider Jesus' predictions and teaching about the end of the world. In the context of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' words about this are spoken to his disciples as he prepares them for his passion and death.

Before we consider Jesus' words, it is important to note the political backdrop against which many think Mark's Gospel was written. Most scholars concur that Mark wrote his Gospel for Christians living in or near Rome about 30 to 40 years after the death of Jesus. This was a time of political turmoil in Rome. Some Christians experienced persecution by the Romans during the reign of the emperor Nero (about 64 A.D.). Jewish revolutionaries rebelled against the Romans, which led the Romans to destroy the Temple in Jerusalem in 70 A.D. In this time of political turmoil and persecution, many in Mark's community might have wondered if the end times predicted by Jesus were in fact quite near.

If we had been reading Mark's Gospel continuously, we would have heard Jesus predict the destruction of the Temple, his teaching about the costs of discipleship, and the woes that will accompany the end times. Finally, we would have heard Jesus instruct his disciples about the need for watchfulness so that they will not be caught unprepared for this final day of judgment.

In today's Gospel, Jesus continues this teaching by offering his disciples signs to look for that will indicate that the coming of the Son of Man is near. His words and images draw upon Old Testament imagery, especially images found in the Book of Daniel. Next, Jesus offers the lesson of the fig tree, a parable that teaches that if one knows how to read the signs, one can be prepared for the end times. Jesus also teaches, however, that no one knows when the end time will come, except the Father. In the verses that follow this reading in Mark's Gospel, Jesus continues to warn his disciples to be on watch for this end time.

Jesus' words are not spoken to frighten his disciples, nor should they frighten us. Rather, they are offered to prepare us for the changes we will experience during our lifetimes and at the end times. Our consolation and hope is found in the lasting nature of Jesus' words and God's never-ending love for us.

THE END IS NIGH?!

The sun darkening, stars falling from the sky, Jesus coming on the clouds in power and glory, heaven and earth passing away. Sounds like an apocalyptic movie! ("Heaven and earth" here means the material universe, not those who live within it. Think of the phrases, "the heavens opened": we mean heavy rain, not Heaven itself!) Jesus never wants us to be frightened though; however, he doesn't shy away from presenting the truth, and doing and saying what it takes to make our path to Heaven clearer. Sometimes we need a little shaking up, and every year, as we approach the end of the liturgical year, we get that shake up! Ever since Jesus ascended into Heaven, the Church has taught that Jesus will come again, even if we don't know when it will happen. Whether or not we witness that event in our lifetime, we know that we will also meet Jesus at our death. We should be prepared. Not frightened, but prepared and even excited! A day is coming that is so filled with hope - when war, and violence, pain and suffering will be over; when God will make all things new! He is the Light already present in our world that is pretty dark and bleak at times. He is the one certainty we can cling too. His Word will never pass away. Even if everything else changes in our lives, His love for us will never change.

MISSION!

LOOK AT THREE PEOPLE IN YOUR LIFE THIS WEEK. THEY MIGHT BE FAMILY, FRIENDS, COLLEAGUES, TEACHERS, COACHES... ARE YOU TEARING THEM DOWN, LEAVING THEM ALONE OR BUILDING THEM UP BY YOUR ACTIONS. WHAT CONCRETE ACTIONS CAN YOU TAKE TO BUILD THEM UP? MAYBE IT'S SOMETHING YOU NEED TO STOP DOING RATHER THAN START... BE HONEST WITH YOURSELF!

PRAYER TIME!

Take some time in silence, on your own, and allow yourself to reflect on the following. Imagine you are sitting at home in your bedroom, on a normal day, when you hear a gentle knock at your bedroom door. When you open it, you find yourself looking into the loving and tender smiling face of Jesus. What is your immediate reaction? Are you excited, happy? Do you hug Him, welcome Him to your home? Or are you worried, frightened for some reason? Do you hesitate to welcome Him in? Do you feel distant from Him, and unsure how to react? Talk to Him honestly in this moment about what His presence means for you. When you have finished talking, imagine His eyes looking into yours. What do you think He would say to you in this moment? How would He tell you that He loves you, that He gave His life, for you? How do you respond to His love? Do you need Him to help you accept it? Allow yourself, as much as you can, to feel His love for you.

Lord Jesus, I know that You see me as I am, that You know my heart, and You love me completely. You are the one constant in this life. Help me to trust You totally, and to build my life on Your Word and Your Love. You are the Way, the Truth and the Life. Amen
