Pray

In the Gospel today we hear the story of Jesus proclaiming the prophetic words from the scroll of Isaiah in the synagogue.

Take some time to reflect on the key message of this week's Gospel. Think about the following:

- What is the Holy Spirit saying to you through this piece of Scripture? How do these words resonate with you personally?
- Imagine yourself in this scene: can you sense the atmosphere, all eyes turned on Jesus? How would He have read these words? How would your heart have reacted?
- Each of us have received the Holy Spirit at Baptism: pray about how the Lord is calling you to live out your baptismal calling this week - where can you bring the Good News, new sight, liberty - how can you set the downtrodden free? Who comes to mind?

Talk

Today's Gospel is a clear statement by Jesus of His mission, as foretold by the prophets, and the type of Kingdom He wants to build.

- Can you think of people in the world today who need help? Has your family ever done anything to help the poor and needy? Talk about these actions.
- Can you think of a time you received good news that made your whole day better? What news was that? Who told you the news?
- What message does Jesus have for people? Why do we call that the "Good News"? How did Jesus help others in the Gospels? Can you remember any stories that are like the passage Jesus is reading today from the Prophet Isaiah?
- We received the Holy Spirit at baptism - we have been anointed to do these things too. How can we help others hear and see the Good News of Jesus this week?

Family Challenge!

Each day, begin with a prayer to the Holy Spirit to show you how to live out this week's Gospel, and who you can reach out to. Share your stories and encourage each other throughout the week!

WE'RE ONE BODY

Mission:

Do you know how special you are to God? He created you like no one else. No one smiles like you or laughs like you, or has your talents and gifts! Thank God for making you as you are, and use your gifts to serve others, just like our second reading today!

ANOINTED BY THE SPIRIT

In last week's Gospel from John, we heard about the first public sign worked by Jesus at the wedding feast at Cana; "He let His glory be seen and His disciples believed in Him."

This Sunday we move to a public announcement by Jesus of His Mission in Luke's Gospel. Jesus has just spent forty days fasting and praying in the desert, having been led there by the Spirit, where He was tempted by Satan before returning to Galilee to begin His public ministry.

Imagine the scene: this enigmatic preacher stepping forward in the synagogue, taking the scroll of the Prophet Isaiah from their hand (Isaiah 61:1-2). As He selected the passage He wished to read, they must have wondered what He would choose that day. Can you hear the steady authority in His voice as He read the words written about Him centuries beforehand? Can you imagine the racing thoughts, the swirling questions, the bated breath? Can you sense the growing excitement and tension of the moment? Then He announces, "This text is being fulfilled today even as you listen." All eyes were fixed on Him. An epic moment in Salvation History, but let's not leave it there as a historical event.

The question for us today is not how they reacted 2000 years ago, but how I react now? Do I believe this message is for me? Do I believe Jesus wants to set me free today, to fill my life with His good news?

Today we begin Catholic Schools Week 2022 - the theme for the week is 'Catholic Schools: Living Life to the Full'. What is it for a Catholic to live life to the full? To accept the message of Jesus Christ and to bring it to others, surely. Look again at what the Prophet Isaiah foretold the Messiah would do: "The spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for he has anointed me. He has sent me to bring the good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives, to set the downtrodden free, to proclaim the Lord's year of favour."

By virtue of our baptism, we too have been called to this mission, we too have been anointed by the Spirit and are urged forwards, out of our comfort zones, to bring this life-giving, life-changing message to all we meet. Are we willing to step up to our responsibilities as Christians, and share the treasures of our faith with others, in concrete and practical ways?

We are blessed with opportunities to proclaim the Lord through our words and actions each and every day, if we can just recognise them and choose to act.

Let's tune our hearts to the Spirit's promptings, to see as Jesus sees, to love as He loves, and to free as He frees.

Family Prayer

Holy Spirit, whenever I am blind to the Truth, or feel downtrodden, or a prisoner to my own worries and faults, or I forget the Good News of Christ, or feel far from God, fill my heart again with your anointing and peace, so that I may bring your Good News to others too.
Amen

"For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven"
Nicene Creed

WHY GOD BECAME MAN

This Gospel passage is just rife with bubbling anticipation and excitement. Jesus' reputation as a wonder-worker has been growing. His wisdom as a teacher has been admired by many, his revolutionary preaching has been stirring up hearts, both for and against him. Then he returns to Galilee, and reads from Isaiah 61, a well-known passage. You can imagine Him pausing dramatically as the crowds' eyes are fixed on Him, and then He announces, "This text is being fulfilled today even as you listen." Mic drop (if He had a mic!) Jesus was effectively telling His listeners that He was the Chosen One, the Messiah, the One whom the Prophet Isaiah foretold. What a claim to make, absolute blasphemy if He was wrong. We know, however, that He was speaking the truth, because Jesus IS the Way, the Truth and the Life. He was fulfilling the Old Testament prophecies. God became man, to show us how to live, how to love, how to die, and how to live forever in heaven, with Him. He modelled a way of life we are still called to practice today. By the power of the Holy Spirit, we can do this. Let's decide to follow His lead.

Read the words from Isaiah 61:1-2 again. Because we have been anointed by the Spirit at our baptism, we have the same call. How can you put even one aspect of this call into practice in your life this week? Ask the Holy Spirit to open your eyes to what He wants you to do, and then act when you feel His prompting!

CHECK IT OUT: CALLED TO MORE

"Called to More is a Catholic apostolate based in Dublin, Ireland. "Our mission is to help you know your faith as a way of life and a relationship with God. At Called to More, we believe God has individually and uniquely called you to know Him, to love Him, to share Him with others, and to live with Him in complete joy forever. We are reminding you of this call — your call — to something more."

Colour in the words Jesus read from the Prophet Isaiah

"The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour."

IF SOMEONE ASKED YOU, "WHAT ARE THE BASICS OF CHRISTIAN BELIEF?", HOW WOULD YOU ANSWER? WHAT POINTS WOULD YOU MENTION?

Have you seen John 3:16 on posters at matches? What does the quote say?

HOW WOULD YOU EXPLAIN WHY GOD BECAME MAN, WHY JESUS CAME TO US IN HUMAN FORM?

WATCH THIS EXTRACT FROM THE ALTARATION SERIES: "MARK HART ON THE 4 REASONS GOD BECAME MAN." AND REFLECT ON THE QUESTIONS THAT FOLLOW

Mark lists 4 reasons God became man. We find these in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Reason 1: To save us from our _____, in other words, to r_____ us.
 [Jesus accomplished this through His D_____ and R_____!]

Reason 2: To show us what _____ is. It's more than a feeling, or an idea, or a song lyric. It requires s_____ and it works for the other's s_____.
 [Jesus showed the depth of His love for us by dying on the C_____!]

Reason 3: To model _____ for us.
 Can you think of ways Jesus modelled this way of life for us?
 How did He serve / help others? _____

Reason 4: So that we can partake in the D_____ N_____.
 God became man so man could become like _____.

MISSION!

LOOK AGAIN AT WHAT JESUS HAS BEEN ANOINTED TO DO, ACCORDING TO THE PROPHET ISAIAH. BECAUSE WE HAVE BEEN ANOINTED BY THE SPIRIT AT OUR BAPTISM, WE HAVE THE SAME CALL. HOW CAN YOU PUT EVEN ONE ASPECT OF THIS CALL INTO PRACTICE IN YOUR LIFE THIS WEEK? ASK THE HOLY SPIRIT TO OPEN YOUR EYES TO WHAT HE WANTS YOU TO DO, AND THEN ACT WHEN YOU FEEL HIS PROMPTING!

PRAYER TIME!

THE ANGELUS:

Read about the origins of the Angelus Prayer, which celebrates the mystery of the Incarnation of Jesus, God becoming man. Decide this week to try to pray the Angelus at 6pm each day, and set an alarm if you need to! You can use our attached resource, or screen-shot our Angelus Prayer in our Insta Stories (Prayer)! Make 2 minutes for God each day a priority for you this week!

STOP WHAT YOU'RE DOING!

Are you someone who needs technology to set reminders for you? Many people today use their smart-watches, phones or Fitbits to remind them to stay hydrated, or to get up from their desks and move. It's good for our health and well-being. Some even set alarms when to go to bed, as well as when to get up! We often need something outside of ourselves to interrupt what we are doing and remind us of what's important - we can struggle with discipline and balance in our own lives. Life is busy and shows no sign of slowing down! Simple reminders or alarms are often necessary for our physical health, but also for our spiritual health too.

DONG - DONG - DONG!?

You might be familiar with the Angelus bell at 6pm on RTÉ 1. You may not be familiar with the origins of it however. Catholics have been praying the Angelus for centuries. The Angelus bells ring out three times daily around the world, to interrupt the daily routines of Catholics, reminding them to turn their thoughts towards God and heavenly things. Even non-Catholics can find the interruption useful, a call to lift oneself out of busy routines, and reflect on the important things in life, for just a moment.

The famous painting by Jean-François Millet depicting labourers in a field, stopping to pray the Angelus when they hear the bells ringing in the distance.

<https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:Jean-Francois-Millet-the-angelus.jpg>

TOO BUSY TO STOP?

We can always convince ourselves when we hear the Angelus bells that we're too busy at that moment to stop and pray, but adding a little discipline to our lives, creating a God-space for just 2 out of the 1440 minutes in each day, reminds us that we can choose how we order our day, and give a dedicated time back to God, in thanksgiving.

PRAYING THE ANGELUS

The prayer begins with the story of the Angel Gabriel visiting Mary. We walk with Mary from that moment of the Annunciation to the birth of Jesus, and then we remember how Jesus died and rose from the grave to save us because He loves us - that's definitely worth two minutes of reflection each day!

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done unto me according to Your word.

Hail Mary...

V. And the Word was made Flesh.

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

LET US PRAY:

Pour forth, we beseech You O Lord, Your grace into our hearts, that we to whom the Incarnation of Christ Your Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection. Through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.
