Lord, it's hard for me to understand just how much You love me. You call me to love others in the same way. It's not easy Lord, but by Your grace, I want to try. Show me how. Amen

Can you explain how any four of these words relate to the message of the Gospel?

What do you think God could be saying to you in this Gospel? What speaks to your heart? Maybe it raises questions, maybe it's a little uncomfortable, maybe it offers hope... what matters is that we are open to hearing God speak to us individually.

DOODLE PRAYER

Reflect on the scripture quote and allow thoughts and images that come to you to form part of your doodle prayer: it could be people or situations that need prayer or even areas you might need to change in. Certain words or phrases might stand out for you. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your heart as you pray and doodle!

"Remain in my love."

 SPONTANEOUS WORSHIP | TWO HOURS OF WORSHIP PIANO

Our world loves heroes, our world needs heroes; those who are able to rise above and beyond the pettiness and worries of every day life; those who are willing to sacrifice themselves in the service of others; to show just what goodness, even greatness, humans are capable of; those who direct our attention to higher ideals and purpose in life.

Emil Joseph Kapaun, born in 1916 in Kansas, was ordained a Catholic priest, and became a United States Army chaplain in 1944 in World War II and later chose to re-enlist for the Korean war. He died as a prisoner of war in Korea in 1951 after seven brutal months in a Korean prison camp. Father Kapaun heroically served his fellow prisoners, acting like a father and a mother to them in their needs, keeping their spirits up with his humour and his dedication to God. In 1993, he was declared a Servant of God by Pope John Paul II and was presented, posthumously, with the Medal of honor by President Barack Obama in 2013. In fact, he is the most decorated military chaplain in US history.
