THE GREATEST SURPRISE: JESUS' SECOND COMING

Lord Jesus, I know that You see me as I am, that You know my heart, and You love me completely. You are the one constant in this life. Help me to trust You totally, and to build my life on Your Word and Your Love. You are the Way, the Truth and the Life. Amen

WEEKLY CHALLENGE!

This week, reflect on how ready you are to meet Jesus, and what that even means to you. Are we living our lives with Him, trying to be the best version of ourselves? Or are we putting off change, and settling for mediocrity?

REFLECT

- Who is the "Son of Man"? Can you name other titles for Him?
- Jesus presents Himself as a Judge in this gospel - what do you think He will be judging?
- Do you think Jesus means for us to be fearful of that "end-time"? Why else might He be giving a warning?
- What kind of things are uncertain in the world today?
- What reassurance does Jesus offer in this Gospel. Read today's psalm also - how does this relate to the reassurance in the Gospel?

Sacred Space is a ministry of the Irish Jesuits. They invite you to make a 'Sacred Space' in your day, praying here and now, as you visit their website, with the help of scripture chosen every day and on-screen guidance. Our daily routine constantly bombards us with new tools and technologies but God doesn't have to get lost in the shuffle. We can find God anywhere, even on our smartphones. Continue to seek and find God in the busy, modern world. www.sacredspace.ie

Can you explain how any four of these words relate to the message of the Gospel?

What do you think God could be saying to you in this Gospel? What speaks to your heart? Maybe it raises questions, maybe it's a little uncomfortable, maybe it offers hope... what matters is that we are open to hearing God speak to us individually.

DOODLE PRAYER

Reflect on the scripture quote and allow thoughts and images that come to you to form part of your doodle prayer: it could be people or situations that need prayer or even areas you might need to change in. Certain words or phrases might stand out for you. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your heart as you pray and doodle!

"Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away."

MARK 13:24-32

HIS WORD & MY LIFE:

The sun darkening, stars falling from the sky, Jesus coming on the clouds in power and glory, heaven and earth passing away. Sounds like an apocalyptic movie! ("Heaven and earth" here means the material universe, not those who live within it. Think of the phrases, "the heavens opened": we mean heavy rain, not Heaven itself!)

Jesus never wants us to be frightened though; however, he doesn't shy away from presenting the truth, and doing and saying what it takes to make our path to Heaven clearer. Sometimes we need a little shaking up, and every year, as we approach the end of the liturgical year, we get that shake up!

Ever since Jesus ascended into Heaven, the Church has taught that Jesus will come again, even if we don't know when it will happen. Whether or not we witness that event in our lifetime, we know that we will also meet Jesus at our death. We should be prepared. Not frightened, but prepared and even excited! A day is coming that is so filled with hope - when war, and violence, pain and suffering will be over; when God will make all things new! He is the Light already present in our world that is pretty dark and bleak at times. He is the one certainty we can cling too. His Word will never pass away. Even if everything else changes in our lives, His love for us will never change.

St Paul uses an unusual image to describe Jesus: He will come again like a _____ in the night. (1 Thessalonians 5:1-11) What does that suggest?

Fr Mike talks about the difference between a surprise being a GOOD surprise and a BAD surprise. He suggests that for Christians, two things will make the difference in Jesus' Coming being a good or a bad surprise for people?

- Living like we _____ it.
- Living _____

What do you think Fr Mike means by this question?

MISSION!

LOOK AT THREE PEOPLE IN YOUR LIFE THIS WEEK. THEY MIGHT BE FAMILY, FRIENDS, COLLEAGUES, TEACHERS, COACHES... ARE YOU TEARING THEM DOWN, LEAVING THEM ALONE OR BUILDING THEM UP BY YOUR ACTIONS. WHAT CONCRETE ACTIONS CAN YOU TAKE TO BUILD THEM UP? MAYBE IT'S SOMETHING YOU NEED TO STOP DOING RATHER THAN START... BE HONEST WITH YOURSELF!

PRAYER TIME!

Take some time in silence, on your own, and allow yourself to reflect on the following. Imagine you are sitting at home in your bedroom, on a normal day, when you hear a gentle knock at your bedroom door. When you open it, you find yourself looking into the loving and tender smiling face of Jesus. What is your immediate reaction? Are you excited, happy? Do you hug Him, welcome Him to your home? Or are you worried, frightened for some reason? Do you hesitate to welcome Him in? Do you feel distant from Him, and unsure how to react? Talk to Him honestly in this moment about what His presence means for you. When you have finished talking, imagine His eyes looking into yours. What do you think He would say to you in this moment? How would He tell you that He loves you, that He gave His life, for you? How do you respond to His love? Do you need Him to help you accept it? Allow yourself, as much as you can, to feel His love for you.

Lord Jesus, I know that You see me as I am, that You know my heart, and You love me completely. You are the one constant in this life. Help me to trust You totally, and to build my life on Your Word and Your Love. You are the Way, the Truth and the Life. Amen
