PRAYER INTENTION!

Please pray for Stuart McGovern who will be ordained a deacon for our diocese on Divine Mercy Sunday, 27th April!

WEEKLY CHALLENGE!

St John Paul II famously said, "We are an Easter People, and Alleluia is our song!" Make a special effort this week to live as an "alleluia person" - don't give in to complaining, or negativity, or laziness or selfishness. Live as someone who knows how much Jesus loves you and what He was willing to do for you! Raise a Hallelujah!

REFLECT

- What day was the first day of the week?
- Who came to the tomb first?
- Why is it unusual that a woman was the first witness (research the role of women at the time of Jesus!)
- Who did Mary Magdalene run to?
- Who is generally believed to be the Beloved Disciple?
- Who got to the tomb first?
- Who went in first?
- What did he notice about the burial cloths?
- Do you think the disciples fully understood at this moment that Jesus had risen?

HIS WORD & MY LIFE!

JOHN 20:1-9

If Jesus had just been an innocent man who was put to death on Good Friday, His death would have been tragic and an act of senseless cruelty, and the story would have ended there. For Christians, however, Good Friday is not the end of the story.

Jesus told his followers on numerous occasions that He would have to suffer and die, but on the third day He would rise again. They were incapable of understanding that at the time. Imagine the pain, grief and hopelessness they must have felt on Good Friday, watching their good friend suffer and die, and with Him all their hopes for the future?

Then imagine their overwhelming joy and sense of hope they felt at the resurrection!

His mother, Mary, never lost hope in Jesus' promises. Can you imagine how joyful their reunion was after the Resurrection?

Take a moment right now and place yourself into that resurrection scene with the apostles. Where do you need that hope and joy in your life? Invite Jesus to be risen in your heart too!

FIND THE WORDS FROM THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL IN THE WORDSEARCH BELOW

Reflect on the scripture quote and allow thoughts and images that come to you to form part of your doodle prayer: it could be people or situations that need prayer or even areas you might need to change in. Certain words or phrases might stand out for you. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your heart as you pray and doodle!

This is the day the Lord has made: we rejoice and are glad.

RESPOND!

Can you explain how any four of these words relate to the message of the Gospel?

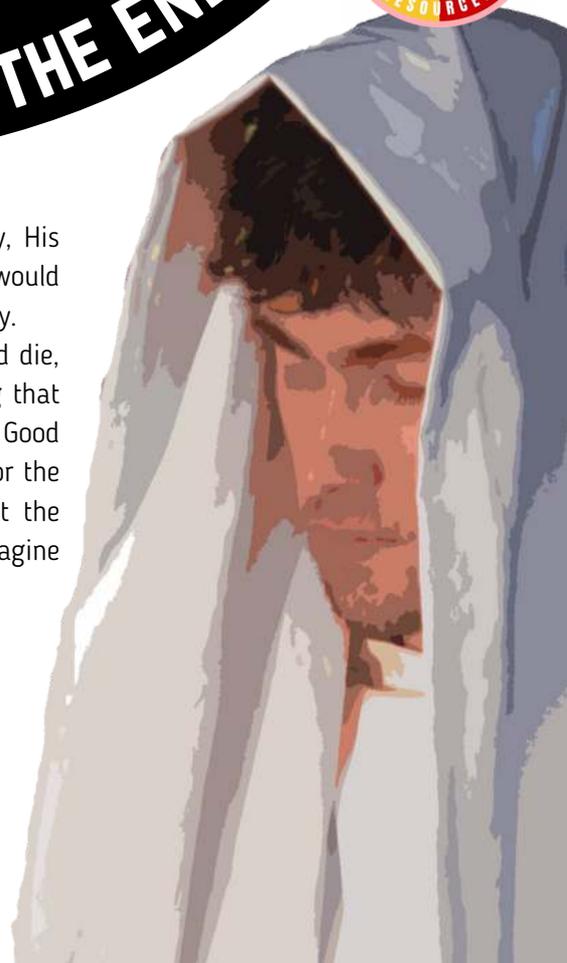

What do you think God could be saying to you in this Gospel? What speaks to your heart? Maybe it raises questions, maybe it's a little uncomfortable, maybe it offers hope... what matters is that we are open to hearing God speak to us individually.

GOOD FRIDAY WAS NOT THE END

WHAT IS HOPE?

If Jesus had just been an innocent man who was put to death on Good Friday, His death would have been tragic and an act of senseless cruelty, and the story would have ended there. For Christians, however, Good Friday is not the end of the story. Jesus told his followers on numerous occasions that He would have to suffer and die, but on the third day He would rise again. They were incapable of understanding that at the time. Imagine the pain, grief and hopelessness they must have felt on Good Friday, watching their good friend suffer and die, and with Him all their hopes for the future? Then imagine their overwhelming joy and sense of hope they felt at the resurrection! His mother, Mary, never lost hope in Jesus' promises. Can you imagine how joyful their reunion was after the Resurrection?

Easter Symbols

CHECK OUT THE MEANING OF THE FOLLOWING EASTER SYMBOLS:

Eggs

Easter eggs are said to represent Jesus' emergence from the tomb and resurrection.

So when you're tucking into your first, or fifth chocolate egg on Easter Sunday, think of what that empty tomb means:

That you have a God who loves you so much, He was willing to suffer, die and rise again from the dead just for you! He conquered sin and death, for our sakes! Now, that's sweeter than any chocolate!

Lilies

White Easter Lilies symbolise Christ's purity and are often used to decorate churches and homes at Easter time.

Lilies grow from dormant bulbs in the ground to flowers which symbolise the rebirth and hope of Christ's resurrection.

Bunnies!

Not much to be honest! At least, not with any real Christian understanding of Easter! Rabbits are associated with fertility (because they have so many baby bunnies in Springtime!). For Christians, at most, the rabbit can symbolise new life and rebirth.

Butterflies

The whole life cycle of a butterfly can be seen as a symbol for the life of Jesus Christ.

The first stage, the caterpillar, can stand for His earthly life.

The cocoon stage can be seen to symbolise Jesus' crucifixion and burial.

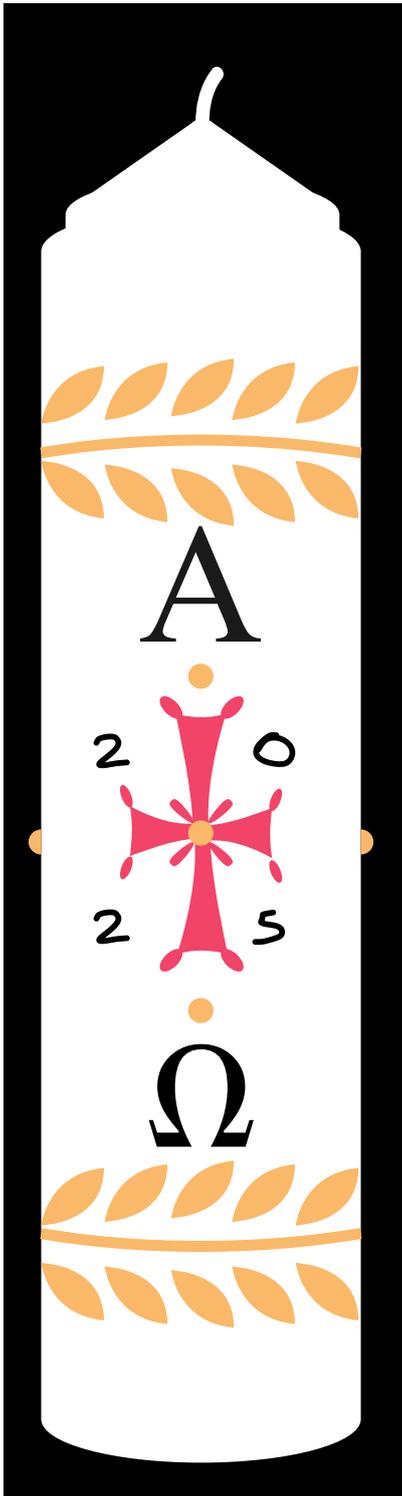

The final stage is the butterfly, representing His resurrection from the dead in a glorified body.

Lambs

Of all the Easter symbols, the lamb is probably the most strongly Christian. The lamb comes from the Jewish Passover, where each family killed a lamb as a sacrifice for the Passover meal. When Jesus Christ became the Passover Lamb for everyone, the sacrificial offering for the sake of the whole world, the lamb became a symbol for His sacrifice. Many Christians today also serve lamb as part of the Easter feast. In Germany, there is a tradition to serve an Osterlammkuchen (a cake in the shape of a lamb) on Easter Sunday.

EASTER SYMBOLS

Light

"I AM THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD. WHOEVER FOLLOWS ME WILL NEVER WALK IN DARKNESS, BUT WILL HAVE THE LIGHT OF LIFE." JOHN 8:12

The Paschal Candle

The candle symbolises the Light of Christ and the resurrection - all the other candles in the Church are lit from this one: Jesus is the source of all light!

Beeswax

"...extracted by bees from flowers symbolises the pure flesh of Christ received from His Virgin Mother, the wick signifies the soul of Christ and the flame represents His divinity". (Catholic Encyclopedia)

Flame

Reminds us of the "pillar of fire" that led the Hebrews as they escaped slavery at the hands of the Egyptians.

Cross

The greatest symbol of Jesus since it was through the Cross He chose to save us.

ΑΩ

Greek letters Alpha and Omega:

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."
(Revelations 21:6-7)

Year

To remind us that God is here with us today and always.

Five Grains of Incense

Inserted into the candle symbolising the five wounds of Jesus Christ.
