POPE'S INTENTIONS FOR SEPTEMBER

FOR THE CARE OF WATER

Let us pray for a just and sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone may have equal access to it.

WEEKLY CHALLENGE!

- Take some time in prayer and reflection this week.
- Is there someone in your life you need to have a courageous conversation and set boundaries with?
- Or is there something within yourself that you need to stop tolerating and change? Make a resolution to work on it this week.

PRAY

Jesus, you want me to be the best version of myself. Help me to establish boundaries with others where I need to, so that both I and my friendship with others can flourish. Show me where I need to cut out certain behaviours in my own life too, and give me the strength to change. Amen.

GROW CHASTITY PROJECT

Do you have questions about love, dating, relationships, porn, sex? Want to hear what the Catholic Church actually teaches? Want to understand the freedom that living a chaste life can bring you? Jason Evert and special guests answer questions from the listeners on life, love, lust, and everything in between. Check out <https://chastity.com>

GAMECHANGERS!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
OUR LADY'S BIRTHDAY!
8TH SEPTEMBER
Hail, full of grace!

The Catholic Church's Liturgical Calendar is crammed full of inspirational saints and heroes, or as we like to call them, Game Changers! Check them out on our web page!

REFLECT

- What first step does Jesus suggest for sorting a disagreement?
- If step one is not successful, what advice did He give?
- What do you think Jesus meant when He said, "Whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven...."? What power was He giving to His apostles here?
- How does the end of the Gospel explain the importance of unity in groups, unity of intention and purpose?

HIS WORD & MY LIFE

"We get the behaviour we are willing to tolerate." It makes sense really, doesn't it? If we allow a friend or family member to be sarcastic or rude to us, they will continue to be sarcastic or rude. If we decide for ourselves that this is not acceptable, if we communicate it clearly and follow through with consequences, it can make a difference. We hope that their behaviour will change, but if not, something inside us can change as we make the decision and follow through.

What about ourselves though? What are we willing to tolerate in our own behaviour? Can we be a little quick to let ourselves off the hook and make excuses for lowering our standards or our expectations of ourselves? Possibly.

There's a definite challenge in that for each of us this week. Is there something I'm not happy with in myself, some thing that I want to change, some standard I know I should reach or virtue I should practice, but I make excuses and settle for less, or even fall into sin?

The good news is we're not on our own in any of this. The Holy Spirit can help us to understand what to tolerate (or not) in ourselves and others, give us the grace to set those boundaries and the strength to commit (or recommit if we fall!). The first we have to do is decide for change.

Reflect on the scripture quote and allow thoughts and images that come to you to form part of your doodle prayer: it could be people or situations that need prayer or even areas you might need to change in. Certain words or phrases might stand out for you. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your heart as you pray and doodle!

RESPOND

What do you think God could be saying to you in this Gospel? What speaks to your heart? Maybe it raises questions, maybe it's a little uncomfortable, maybe it offers hope... what matters is that we are open to hearing God speak to us individually.

WHAT KIND OF BEHAVIOUR TYPICALLY ANNOYS YOU?

DO YOU FIND IT EASY TO COMMUNICATE YOUR ANNOYANCES TO OTHERS?

WATCH THIS VIDEO FROM FR MIKE SCHMITZ "SETTING BOUNDARIES FOR YOURSELF AND OTHERS" AND REFLECT ON THE QUESTIONS THAT FOLLOW

When it comes to others, what kind of behaviour do we get, according to Fr Mike?

Give an example to explain this theory (from the video, or from experience)

Fr Mike explains that we need to establish clear boundaries: what kind of difficulties can there be in this process?

What three steps are involved in setting boundaries with others?

1. Understand _____
2. Clearly _____ (this takes courage!)
3. Follow _____

Over to you! Someone who know is often dismissive of you and your opinions, especially in front of others. This bothers you a lot and you decide not to tolerate this behaviour any more. Role-play or write the kind of courageous boundary-setting conversation you might have with them:

SETTING BOUNDARIES

Why is it also true for ourselves that we get the behaviour we are willing to tolerate? Give an example to explain this.

What do we ultimately need to decide when it comes to how we live our lives?

What happens if we fall, or fail in our attempt?

TAKE SOME TIME IN PRAYER AND REFLECTION THIS WEEK. IS THERE SOMEONE IN YOUR LIFE YOU NEED TO HAVE A COURAGEOUS CONVERSATION AND SET BOUNDARIES WITH? OR IS THERE SOMETHING WITHIN YOURSELF THAT YOU NEED TO STOP TOLERATING AND CHANGE? MAKE A RESOLUTION TO WORK ON IT THIS WEEK.
