POPE'S INTENTIONS FOR OCTOBER

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Mental health matters

WEEKLY CHALLENGE:

Take some time this week to look at any area where you're struggling with being prompt and prepared. How is this impacting your life? How could it be better? Are you prompt and prepared when it comes to practicing your faith, or are you like the wedding guest who just turned up with no commitment or genuine effort on your behalf especially in matters of faith?

PRAY

Lord Jesus, I want to be the best version of myself. I want to use the gifts and talents you have given me, I want to reach my true potential. I know this is only possible with and through you. Please don't let me settle for mediocrity, but help me to strive for excellence in everything I do. Amen

REFLECT

- Who was Jesus talking to in this parable?
- Who is the king and who is the son he is referring to?
- How did the first people who were invited to the banquet respond?
- How did the next group who were invited respond?
- Who do you think Jesus was referring to with these examples?
- Who was invited next to the wedding banquet?
- Who do these people represent?
- Bearing in mind that wedding garments were provided for guests to wear, why was the guest at the end thrown out of the banquet?

HIS WORD & MY LIFE

PUZZLE

FIND THE WORDS FROM TODAY'S GOSPEL IN THE WORDSEARCH BELOW

"Anything worth doing is worth doing well": Sound familiar? Sound easy?

We can all look for the easy option at times - staying in our comfort zones, wanting things handed to us - who wouldn't want that?

There's a lot going on in this parable: the first part is easier to understand. God invites many into His Kingdom, the wedding feast of His Son (Jesus) but many refused the invitation - just like many refused to listen to the prophets in the Old Testament (the servants in the parable). So God goes beyond the Jews, the Chosen People, and others are invited into the feast, the Kingdom of Heaven. For the Elders and Pharisees at the time of Jesus this would have been shocking, but it's a concept we're more familiar with these days.

Maybe too familiar... that's why the next part can be jarring for us. One guest comes, not properly dressed and is thrown out.

Would God really kick someone out of his kingdom for not being properly attired?

That sounds ridiculous, and it's not actually what's going on here. It's a reminder to us that all are invited, but we need to actively decide for Christ. We need to strive to reach our Christian potential with promptness and preparedness and not settle for a life of mediocrity. We were made for more!

Reflect on the scripture quote and allow thoughts and images that come to you to form part of your doodle prayer: it could be people or situations that need prayer or even areas you might need to change in. Certain words or phrases might stand out for you. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your heart as you pray and doodle!

RESPOND

What do you think God could be saying to you in this Gospel? What speaks to your heart? Maybe it raises questions, maybe it's a little uncomfortable, maybe it offers hope... what matters is that we are open to hearing God speak to us individually.

STRIVING FOR EXCELLENCE

"To live without faith, without a heritage to defend, without battling constantly for truth, is not to live but to 'get along'; we must never just 'get along'!"
St Pier Giorgio Frassati

WHAT WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE REALLY EXCELLENT AT?

WHAT DO YOU THINK ARE POSSIBLE OBSTACLES TO THAT?

WATCH THIS VIDEO FROM FR MIKE SCHMITZ "HOW TO BE EXCELLENT (NOT A PERFECTIONIST)" AND REFLECT ON THE QUESTIONS THAT FOLLOW

Why is perfection sometimes called "the enemy of the good"?

If excellence is not the same as perfection, how could excellence be defined?

Fr Mike suggests two factors or metrics to see if we are striving for excellence or just settling for mediocrity:

1

PROMPTNESS

Give 4 examples of promptness suggested by Fr Mike:

Finish the quote: "Punctuality is the _____"

How would you explain this in your own words?

2

(BEING) PREPARED

How did Fr Mike explain the importance of being prepared for having an excellent liturgy? How is it different to being just very skilled in each role?

How can we honour God by being prompt and prepared?
What are we using / maximising?

STRIVING FOR EXCELLENCE

Have you thought about this before? How would it change things for you if you applied this to your actions? Pick one area of life and reflect on this: it could be prayer / Mass attendance / serving others / school work.

SITUATION: _____

HOW I COULD BE PROMPT & PREPARED _____

THE DIFFERENCE IT COULD MAKE _____

MISSION!

TAKE SOME TIME THIS WEEK TO LOOK AT ANY AREA WHERE YOU'RE STRUGGLING WITH BEING PROMPT AND PREPARED. HOW IS THIS IMPACTING YOUR LIFE? HOW COULD IT BE BETTER? ARE YOU PROMPT AND PREPARED WHEN IT COMES TO PRACTICING YOUR FAITH, OR ARE YOU LIKE THE WEDDING GUEST WHO JUST TURNED UP WITH NO COMMITMENT OR GENUINE EFFORT ON YOUR BEHALF ESPECIALLY IN MATTERS OF FAITH?

PRAYER TIME!
